

www.cityviewat3rd.com

LOCATION

Here is the best part - we've created this superior living environment with the finest amenities directly in the heart of where you want to be with pleasant, brief walkway access to some of Columbus' finest downtown locations your biggest problem will be deciding exactly how you choose to entertain yourself. If you and your friends feel the urge to get outside and enjoy local parks you'll have your choice of Goodale Park, Bicentennial, Arena, and the Riverfront Bike Trails, among others.

When the hunger pangs begin, walk to an array of restaurants ranging from diners to steakhouses to coffee houses literally food from every culture. The entertainment just beginning, stroll over to the Palace, Ohio, or Southern Theatres, or take in a game at the Nationwide Arena or the Lifestyle Pavilion.

Most of the seasonal Columbus festivals are also held nearby including the Columbus Arts Festival, the Red, White and Boom, Festival Latino, and the Jazz and Rib Festival. Festivals and entertainment are fun and attractive, but we've also included close proximity to some of life's necessities with a myriad of fitness centers, advanced education opportunities, and shopping malls extending the attraction to establishing your lifestyle in the midst of CityView at 3rd.

And don't forget to register as a VIP we want to get you know you better.

